

CURRICULUM VITAE OF
ROBERT HEDINGER

EDUCATION

Law School:

Rutgers University School of Law, Newark, New Jersey.
J.D. Degree received January, 1983.

Undergraduate:

New Jersey Institute of Technology, Newark, New Jersey.
B.S. Degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering, 1974.
Magna Cum Laude.

BAR

MEMBERSHIP:

Admitted to the Bars of New Jersey (1983); New York (1985);
Pennsylvania (1983); and the U.S. District Courts of New Jersey and the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

Member of the New Jersey State Bar Association (N.J.S.B.A.)
and American Bar Association. Past-Chairman of the Construction and Public Contract Law Section of the N.J.S.B.A. Member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.
General Counsel to International Society of Pharmaceutical Engineering (ISPE). General counsel to NJIT Alumni Association.

LICENSES:

Licensed Professional Engineer, New Jersey, 1979.
Licensed Professional Planner, New Jersey, 1982.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Commercial and Construction Litigator

Hedinger & Lawless L.L.C., Florham Park, NJ and New York, NY (973) 301-9100
March 1994 - Present.

Areas of Practice: Founding member of a law firm which specializes in construction, and also handles commercial, tort, landlord/tenant, real estate development, labor, and environmental litigation and counseling.

Commercial and Construction Litigator

Peckar & Abramson, P.C., River Edge, NJ and New York, NY.
May 1983 - February 1994.

Responsibilities: Partner in a 30 attorney commercial litigation law firm. Managed a team of attorneys, prepared contracts, advised clients and handled trials, arbitrations and other dispute resolution proceedings.

Independent Consultant

August 1982 - May 1983.

Responsibilities: Expert investigating, reporting and testimony for plaintiffs or defendants engaged in litigation concerning technical issues, construction practices, etc.

Engineering Experience

Kupper Consultants, Piscataway, New Jersey.

Havens and Emerson, Inc., Saddle Brook, New Jersey.

July 1974 - February 1983.

Responsibilities: Served as first an engineer and then project engineer for two consulting engineering firms. Responsible for design, interaction with contractors, construction supervision, report writing, hydraulic analysis, and daily client contact.

PUBLICATIONS:

Author of the Chapter "The Benefit of Surety Bonds From the Perspective of the Private Owner" in "Construction Litigation: Representing the Owner;" 2nd Edition; 1990. John Wiley & Sons. Regular contributor to ASCE Newsletter column "Legal Update."
Lecturer for New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education and regularly to industry groups.